Fuqua Classroom Norms

Learning Partnership

- · Collective role
 - Develop a strong and supportive section dynamic that makes everyone feel comfortable, free to express their views, and able to learn
- · Faculty role
 - Clear expectations, prepared for class, start and end on time, timely feedback, respect for students, hold everyone accountable
- Student role
 - Prepare in advance, come to class ready to engage and participate, respect Classroom Norms

2

Courtesy—in general

- Don't leave the classroom while class is in session. Wait until a break or until class ends. If you are ill, or awaiting news because of a family emergency, let the instructor know before class and sit in the back of the classroom.
- All electronic devices should be turned off during class. If you need to be in touch because of a family emergency, let the instructor know before class and keep your device on vibrate.
- 3. Eat before you come to class; beverages are okay.
- Clean up after yourself and others.

4

Promptness

- Classes will start on time and end on time; breaks will end at the time specified. Students should be in their seats and prepared for class discussion before class starts and before the break ends.
- 2. Always bring your name tent.
- Some classes have handouts and/or require you to turn in an assignment before class starts. You should arrive in time to pick up a handout at the front of the class or turn in an assignment. Don't walk to the front once class has started.
- If you arrive late, take a seat at the back of the classroom so as to avoid disturbing others. It is fine to move into a better seat at the break.

3

Courtesy—class discussion

During the class discussion:

- 1. Listen carefully: to the professor, to your classmates.
- Raise your hand when you want to speak and wait to be acknowledged by the professor
- 3. Do not interrupt someone else who is speaking.
- If someone else makes the comment you planned to make, put your hand down. Don't repeat a comment someone else has already made.
- 5. Be respectful of others' comments and ideas.

5

Preparedness

- Come to class having completed all the assigned readings, cases and other assignments.
- Bring all the necessary class materials with you to class including cases, readings and an extra copy of your assignment (if one is due).
- Cold calls are fair game, though it is better if you initiate the discussion.
